D. Sumner Willson Is Sole Masculine Guest of Lady Managers' Function.

OBJECT OF MUCH ATTENTION.

Many Distinguished Club Women Attend Affair in Honor of Miss Sarah Platt Decker of Denver, Colo.

D. Sumner Willson, Rochester, N Y., has a proud distinction. He acquired it yesterday afternoon. It is his and his only. He was the sole and solitary male guest at the Board of Lady He liked the experience, so he fervently declared, and fondly hopes it will come his way soon again, How did it happen that a man put in

Mrs. Frederick Hanger and Mrs. W. L. Andrews, from opposite ends of a Colonial table, and with pyramids of yellow roses between them, vied with each other to attract his sole attention and to serve him exclusively to "Andrews tea" or "Hanger coffee."

The Countess Spotteswood-Mackin, between handshakes with old friends of her St. Louis girihood who knew her as Sally Britton, declared: "Who's that good-looking man? How did he stray in here? Bring him over and present him at once." Groups of pieasantiy-agitated ciub ladies—Mrs. Philip N. Moore, Mrs. E. A. Wilson, Miss Murphy of Minnesota and Miss Daisy Powell of St. Louis—congregated in his vicinity and snowered him with attentions.

Altogether, it was a great afternoon for MEMORABLE OCCASION.

Incidentally 300 club representatives found it a memorable occasion. When Mrs. Decker was here in the spring and elected president of the federation, few club women in St. Louis or out of it, in fact, obtained much opportunity to see or to talk with this brilliant Westerner. Some never even got near enough for a handshake. So yesterday's reception was a boon and they enjoyed it. Mrs. Decker has laid axide her deep mourning for her late husband, Judge Decker, and made a regal appearance yesterday in white brocade, with directory coat of point applique and chiffon, accompanied by a black plumed hat and some fine diamonds half hidden in the laces of her bodice. Mrs. Manning, at whose left Mrs. Decker was placed, received in a white chiffon and lace costume, heavy cream insertions combined with white French laces, a white lace and plumed hat and some handsome jewels.

MRS, T. A. EDISON. Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, wife of the famous electrician and an exceedingly pretty brunette woman, came with her hostess, Mrs. Goodman King, wearing a white creps gown, with large plumed black hat. Mrs. King was in pale blue.

The Celesta Will Be Heard for Second Time Here.

A musical novelty which bids fair to be one of the most pleasing performances which has ever been given in Festival Hall will be presented Wednesday aftermonon by Mr. F. R. Kroeger of the Exposition Department of Music and Mr. Mustel, who is connected with the French musical displays at the World's Pair.

The instruments used in this concert will be the plano and the celesta, a species of organ which has recently been invented in Paris, and which will be heard for the second time in the United States at the concert Wednesday aftermoon. Though the celesta resembles the organ in appearance, its tone is quite different taking on more of the reedy quality. The celesta is usually played with plano accompanyment. This instrument was first heard in the United States at the symphony concert in Festival Hall last Friday, when it was used only to accompany the other pieces. Mr. Kroeger was impressed with the effect of the novel musical instrument and suggested to Mr. Mustel the propriety of giving exclusively a celesta concert.

CARVES STAMP ON CRACKER BOL Young Visayan at the Fair Under-

Utilizing the end of an ordinary cracker box for material, a World's Pair souvenis postage stamp as a copy, with chisels, mallet and a pocketknife, Vivencio Sossa, the young wood carver, molder and artist of the Visayan Village in the Philippine section, is carving an enlarged reproduction of a World's Fair postage stamp. When finished it will be 19x16 inches

When finished it will be 19x14 inches square.

The stamp is reproduced with precision in every detail, including all the inscriptions and decorations. The bust of Thomas Jefferson is nearly complete and is a most striking likeness. The carving is a remarkable piece of work when the exceedingly common quality of the material used and the size of the copy from which the carving is being reproduced are considered.

When questioned as to the time it would require to complete the work. Sessa replied: "About five days." Several specimens of the carver's art which have been completed since his arrival at the Pair demonstrate his ability.
